A FEW WORDS ABOUT ACHARYA PRAFULLA CHANDRA COLLEGE:

Acharya Prafulla Chandra College was established on 16th August 1960 under the 'Dispersal Scheme' initiated by Lt. Haripada Biswas (Funder Secretary), with the aim of providing opportunities for higher education to students of refugee families settled in the New Barrackpore colony. The college though situated some 20 KMs away from Kolkata has secured for itself a niche in the field of undergraduate education in West Bengal. The college offers 28 under graduate courses and 8 post graduate courses with lot of research activities leading to Ph.D degree. The NAAC peer team accredited (2nd cycle) the college as "A" grade institution with CGPA 3.23. In the true spirit of Acharya Prafulla Chandra Roy, the college from its nascent state has tried to propagate the ideals of this great man and motto illustrates this: 'Service, Knowledge. and Sacrifice'.
